SAVE FRED!

Team Building Projects Continue...

This past week the students took on the challenge of saving Fred (a gummy worm) when his boat (a plastic cup) capsized and his life jacket (a gummy life saver) was trapped under the boat. Students were not able to touch Fred, his boat, or his life jacket with their hands. Students were only able to use 4 paper clips to rescue Fred and safely secure his life jacket around his body. Some were disappointed to find out they were NOT allowed to stab Fred with the paper clips. Each partnership was allowed to successfully rescue Fred.

DO SOMETHING
EVERYDAY THAT

TO YOUR GOAL.

READING LOG

Reading logs will be given every Monday. Students are expected to read at least 20 minutes every night and then turn in the reading log filled out on Friday. Please do not sign these logs ahead of time.

READING IS TO THE MIND WHAT EXERCISE IS TO THE BODY.

BEHAVIOR LOG

Students are given behavior logs on Monday. This is where I will record any behavior concerns or let you know of any outstanding behaviors I see out of your child. This must stay in the homework folder at all times. On Fridays, students will take these logs home to be signed over the weekend and returned on Monday. In order for them to receive the fish cash stated on the behavior log it has to be signed over the weekend by an adult. Please do not sign ahead because I do record information on these forms on Friday and I want to make sure you have been able to look over the log and discuss things with your child.
